'Last-Ditch' Deans Score In Last Quarter After Battling Oregon To a Standstill in First Three; Fernandez, Brassi and Wise Are the Stars

By MIKE JAY
OWN went the Aggies! By a score of 7 to 0 yesterday, they went down before the University of Hawaii eleven champions of the islands...

For there were few in that vast crowd, variety almost excepted, who dreamed that Hawaii would win, and they just sat there and held their breath, hoping and praying, and not cheering too loudly for fear it would break the spell, the kahuna sign which the Deans held on the Beavers, but when the pistol sounded, they let go with a will!

So Mike Jay
Neither team had a chance to stop in the first quarter. The Deans got the ball on the 15-yard line and after a series of passes they were crossing into Beaver territory...

Small But Hard
The Aggies' defense was not so much as the Deans' offense. The Deans' offense was not so much as the Aggies' defense...

Mike Mitchell Enjoyed It Just the Same As If He Had Bought His Ticket

Result of Game Puts Tourist Bureau in Terrible Predicament. Thanks 'The Beachcomber'; Says Brassi Was Top Light For Aggies To Hold Him At All

By MIKE MITCHELL
HERE were a number of ways of opening this story that I thought up on the day downtown this morning, but I see from other accounts of the Oregon-University gridiron contest that they also occurred to the rest of the aggregation of beauty and civility from both papers that was present at Moliuli field yesterday afternoon...

THERE THEY GO! THE DEANS BACKFIELD CHARGING

Look at these four University of Hawaii backs. In an perfect formation as if they'd formed a chorus. Just as a little quizzing contest pick out the man who is carrying the ball. Notice how well the Hawaii line is holding the Oregon Aggies from breaking through and on the extreme left you can see a Hawaii tackle going through to take out one of the Aggies' halves - Photo by Cliff-Gillette photographer
